

Flying Colours Nursery – Duty of Candour Report

1. About Flying Colours Nursery

Flying Colours Nursery is a children's daycare service in Edinburgh for up to 70 children aged 6 months to 5 years at any one time. We provide day care to children from 8am to 6pm. We are in partnership with the local authority which means that although we are an independent nursery, we are funded to provide some hours of early learning and childcare. We aim to ensure that we care for children in a way which supports them to grow and develop.

3. To what extent did Flying Colours Nursery follow the duty of candour procedure?

There have been no incidents.

4. Information about our policies and procedures

Where something has happened that triggers the duty of candour, our staff report this to the nursery manager who has responsibility for ensuring that the duty of candour procedure is followed. The manager records the incident and reports as necessary to the Care Inspectorate. When an incident has happened, the manager and staff set up a learning review. This allows everyone involved to review what happened and identify changes for the future.

All new staff learn about the duty of candour at their induction. We know that serious mistakes can be distressing for staff as well as people who use care and their families. We have occupational welfare support in place for our staff if they have been affected by a duty of candour incident.

5. What has changed as a result?

There have been no incidents.
